The Republican congressional He was congratulated by Democrats upon candidate was the principal speaker of his fair discussion of the Issues and the the second of a three days' celebration of the opening of the Cherokee Strip His reception was enthusiastic. The sudi tince was one of the finest Mr. McGuir has met thus far in his campaign. It was composed of the people who have made Woods county a power in the territory and was have done their share towards developing the great territory of Okla-

The celebration was held in the famous Cleo Springs park. This natural resort has been beautified by Cleo people until it is now considered the idnal place for the citizens of this portion of the county to guther for relebrations and picnics. Hand stands, speakers' stands, many seats and good shade make it a splendid place for political gatherings at this time of the year.

Mr. McGuire arrived here at neon, driving across from Ringwood. Early in the afternoon the theo band paraded the streets, playing splendid music and then escorted Mr. McGuire and the reception committee to the park.
